DETAILED ACTION

1. This Final Office action is responsive to Applicant's amendment filed October 4, 2004.

Claims 1, 4, and 16 have been amended.

Claims 2 and 3 have been cancelled.

Claims 1 and 4-20 are pending.

2. The previously pending rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 101 is withdrawn in response to Applicant's claim amendments.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed October 4, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues, "Neither one of NCR Corporation's Customer Relationship Management suite/portfolio, Relationship Optimizer™ or InterRelate™ products includes all the elements recited in any one of claims 11 through 15. None of these products includes, and none of the cited product announcements discloses, a recommendation engine as recited in each one of claims 11 through 15." (Pages 7-8 of Applicant's response) The Examiner respectfully disagrees. The NCR Customer Relationship Management suite/portfolio, including Relationship Optimizer™ and InterRelate+™, is in and of itself a set of one or more data analysis tools comprising executable instruction since they form a collection of software tools. Furthermore, these tools clearly perform the type of pattern-based analysis and recommendation of interaction strategies recited in the claims. For example, "NCR's Next Generation Software Makes True Customer Relationship Management a Reality" states:

The new NCR Relationship Optimizer software is a key part of the company's commitment to helping businesses 'transform transactions into relationships.' It builds on the company's well-established leadership in designing and implementing customer-center Teradata® Warehouses for analyzing and predicting consumer behavior...

NCR's Relationship Optimizer allows businesses to react quickly and intelligently to customer events. For example, during on-site testing of the software, call center agents were able to start a dialog with a customer when they detected an uncharacteristic transaction...

NCR Relationship Optimizer enables a business to respond to changes in customer behavior with targeted communications, and then record, analyze and react to each customer's unique response. As a result, businesses are able to target hundreds, thousands, or even millions of customers with individual offerings at the right time and through consumers' preferred channels...

NCR Relationship Optimizer easily maintains millions of simultaneous dialogs, oversees customer 'touch points' or channels, identifies changes in consumer behavior, prioritizes leads, enables effective deployment of responses, and handles the necessary on-going assessment and refinement of communication targeting and execution... (Emphasis added, ¶¶ 5, 9, 13, 15)

In conclusion, Applicant's arguments are not persuasive; therefore, the rejections under 35 U.S.C. § 102 are maintained.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1 and 4-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by the NCR Customer Relationship Management suite/portfolio, including Relationship Optimizer™ and InterRelate+™, as disclosed in the following references:

“NCR’s Next Generation Software Makes True Customer Relationship Management a Reality” (July 26, 1999);

“NCR Selects Quadstone as Preferred Analytical Workbench in Support of New Customer Relationship Management Solution” (September 27, 1999);

“New NCR Suite of Solutions Helps Airlines, Insurance Companies Build and Manage More Profitable Customer Relationships” (October 4, 1999);

Sweat et al., “Instant Marketing” (August 2, 1999);

“NCR to Help Customer Focus Switch” (September 1999);

“New Software Sets Up Banks for Tailored Customer Marketing” (August 12, 1999);

“NCR Corporation” (July 28, 1999);

“Data Collector’s Items” (September 30, 1999);

“NCR Corporation and MicroStrategy Ink $52.5 Million Agreement” (October 4, 1999);

“NCR Becomes Strategy.com Master Affiliate” (October 4, 1999); and Hammond, “NCR, MicroStrategy to Share Data Technologies” (October 11, 1999).

6. Claims 1 and 4-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) based upon a public use or sale of the invention. As explained in the art rejection above, claims 1-20 are clearly anticipated by the NCR Customer Relationship Management suite/portfolio, including Relationship Optimizer™ and InterRelate+™, as disclosed in the following references:

“NCR’s Next Generation Software Makes True Customer Relationship Management a Reality” (July 26, 1999);

“NCR Selects Quadstone as Preferred Analytical Workbench in Support of New Customer Relationship Management Solution” (September 27, 1999);

“New NCR Suite of Solutions Helps Airlines, Insurance Companies Build and Manage More Profitable Customer Relationships” (October 4, 1999);

Sweat et al., “Instant Marketing” (August 2, 1999);

“NCR to Help Customer Focus Switch” (September 1999);

“New Software Sets Up Banks for Tailored Customer Marketing” (August 12, 1999);

“NCR Corporation” (July 28, 1999);

“Data Collector’s Items” (September 30, 1999);

“NCR Corporation and MicroStrategy Ink $52.5 Million Agreement” (October 4, 1999);

“NCR Becomes Strategy.com Master Affiliate” (October 4, 1999); and Hammond, “NCR, MicroStrategy to Share Data Technologies” (October 11, 1999).

NCR Corporation is the assignee of the instant application and the NCR
Customer Relationship Management suite/portfolio, including Relationship Optimizer™ and InterRelate+™, were publicly used and sold more than one year prior to Applicant's filing date of December 28, 2000. Furthermore, Applicant's own specification admits that the invention is based on “NCR Corporation's InterRelate+™ customer relationship management software” and “NCR's Relationship Optimizer™ marketing automation solution” (see page 6 of the specification).
